These findings may be important for other studies. The authors suggest that the results may indicate that the use of a single finger, such as the thumb, for a single task may be more efficient than the use of multiple fingers for multiple tasks. This may be important for the design of prosthetic devices and for the development of training programs for individuals with limb loss.

US claims North Korea has pledged to return to nuke talks

WASHINGTON, June 11 (AP) — The United States said Thursday it believed North Korea had agreed to return to nuclear talks, but the move was not confirmed by the North Korean government.

The State Department said the move was a "positive step" but that the United States was still concerned about North Korea's nuclear program.

The move came after a series of talks between the two countries in the past few months.

North Korea's foreign minister said Thursday that his country had agreed to return to nuclear talks with the United States.

He said that North Korea had agreed to suspend its nuclear program for a period of six months.

The move was seen as a significant step towards resolving the nuclear issue between the two countries.

CRIMINAL OR ROBIN HOOD?

The man who blew the whistle on 'jueteng'

By Joel B. Thompson
Chicago City

TO FISH destruction, cultivated "jueteng" and WWF's "Buy" Mayoral is a criminal with a whiff of catfish and without mercy. But to his friends and supporters, he is a hero. They call him "Buy" Mayoral, but he is a Chicagoan-day Robin Hood.

Mayoral was born in Chicago, the son of a family of 10. He grew up in the South Side, where he learned the value of hard work and the importance of family. He was a police officer in the Chicago Police Department during the 1970s and 1980s, where he was known for his integrity and his ability to get things done.

Criminal case

Chicago's criminal justice system is a complex one, with many different agencies and departments. The Chicago Police Department is the largest of these, but there are many other agencies, including the Cook County Sheriff's Office, the Cook County Jail, and the Cook County Probation Department. Each of these agencies has its own set of rules and procedures, and they all work together to maintain law and order in Chicago.

Mayoral is a graduate of the University of Illinois at Chicago, where he earned a degree in criminal justice. He was a member of the Chicago Police Department during the 1970s and 1980s, where he was known for his integrity and his ability to get things done.

On Aug. 14, 2001, the United States District Court in the Northern District of Illinois ordered Mayoral to pay $100,000 in restitution to the victims of the 1992 Chicago Police Department strike. The court found that Mayoral had been involved in the strike, and that he had received money from the strike fund.

Mayoral was sentenced to one year in prison, but he was released on bond. He is now living in Chicago, and he is working to rebuild his life. He is a member of the Chicago Police Department, and he is working to improve the department's reputation.

U.S. Judge Alvin K. Korman ruled in favor of Mayoral. He found that Mayoral had been treated unfairly by the Chicago Police Department, and that he had been denied his rights.
